NanoTech Secures Licensing Deal With Paramount Pictures

NanoTech to begin offering over 950 titles from Paramount's extensive library this summer

SAN JOSE, CA - August 24, 2015 - NanoTech Entertainment (OTCPINK: NTEK), a pioneer in bringing the most visually stunning streaming TV experience to consumers, announced today that it has signed a licensing agreement with Paramount Pictures that will give UltraFlix users access to over 950 films. The award-winning UltraFlix network will begin offering the extensive catalog of titles starting September 1, 2015. This significant agreement will further establish UltraFlix as the leading provider of the best quality content of any streaming network.

Paramount's expansive library boasts many of the most beloved classics, blockbuster hits and fan favorite franchises in cinema history. UltraFlix users will be able to access a world-class array of films including Academy Award® winners like Chinatown, Forrest Gump, Saving Private Ryan and The Godfather; sci-fi hits such as Star Trek (2009), War of the Worlds, Transformers, and Minority Report; action-packed thrill-rides like Mission: Impossible, World War Z, The Hunt for Red October and Top Gun; uproarious comedies such as Anchorman: The Legend of Ron Burgundy, Ferris Bueller's Day Off, Airplane! and Jackass: The Movie; family favorites like The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge Out Of Water and Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius; and many, many more.

One of the key forces driving this market is the ability to deliver the best possible viewer experience. With enhanced video compression, adaptive streaming and intelligent bandwidth management technologies, UltraFlix can stream visually lossless UHD video with uninterrupted viewing at 4Mbps, making the highest quality streaming experience available to most North American and European internet subscribers today.

"Paramount has one of the best overall movie catalogs in the world and we're absolutely delighted to have the opportunity to continue working with them to deliver such a rich diversity of decades of outstanding movies on the UltraFlix Network," said Aaron Taylor, NanoTech's Executive Vice President of Sales & Marketing. "Our mission always has been, and continues to be, the delivery of the most visually stunning movies, music, documentaries and award-winning television series."
